

Where the forest meets the sea.

The Daring Passage Race to Newtown Creek will excite your senses and leave you breathless.

The journey begins at the Shoreline Start of the RLYC on July 3.

You will experience the iconic sights of Cap Gurnard, as vibrant fireweed blossoms light the way through the gently rolling countryside, quaint towns and endless skies that backdrop seagulls soaring above the trees. As you push through the fatigue and final miles of the course, the excitement will grow with each tack as you surge to the finish line at Newtown Creek for a celebration you won't soon forget.

Mother Ship Blue Fox will be there to meet and greet.

Register for your adventure at administrator@daring.org.uk today.

